Jeremiah and Josiah's childhood

Two boys who both put God first

Jeremiah 1
2 Chronicles
34 v 1-5

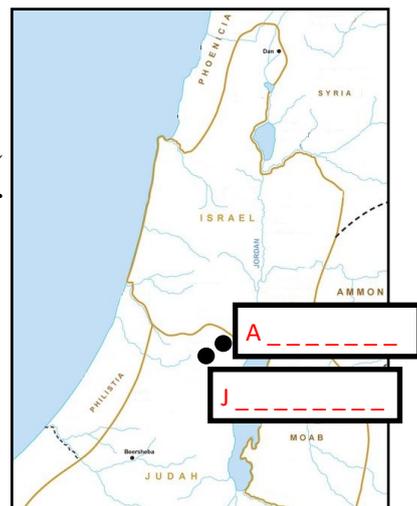

None of us choose our parents, where or when we are born. But the Bible teaches us that God has planned it.

Jeremiah's family lived in Anathoth. His father was a priest. Josiah's family lived in Jerusalem. His father was the King of Judah.

Which boy lived in Anathoth? J _____

Which boy lived in Jerusalem? J _____

On the map label where they lived.

Josiah was born in 648BC and became king in 640BC when his father died.

Josiah was only _____ years old when he became king. (subtract 640 from 648.)

Most of the people worshipped idols but both Jeremiah and Josiah sought the Lord.

Josiah began to seek the Lord in 632BC when he was only ___ years old.

(subtract 632 from 648.)

Colour in what Zephaniah told the people of Jerusalem...

Seek ye the Lord...

it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the Lord's anger.

Zeph. 2v3

In 628BC, when Josiah was 20 years old he began to destroy the idols in the land of Judah. Then in the next year, although Jeremiah was still young, God told him that he must be a prophet.

Underline the reason why Jeremiah felt he couldn't be a prophet...(v6)

Lived in Anathoth

Not important

Still a child

But God promised Jeremiah that He would be with Him.

In two dreams/visions God showed Jeremiah what message he would need to tell the people. Colour in what Jeremiah saw...

A branch of an almond tree
v11

Jeremiah had to tell the people to wake up just as the almond/apple tree is one of the first to wake up after autumn/winter.

A cooking pot v13

The cooking pot was tipping towards the North/South and Jeremiah had to warn the people that help/trouble was coming from there.

One day we will each have to face God's judgement which is why we need to be ready.

To be ready we need to have repented of our sins and know Jesus as our Saviour.
