Jeremiah's Scroll Burnt

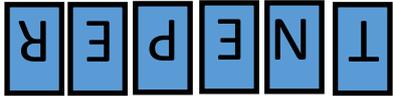

King Jehoiakim tries to destroy God's Message

Jeremiah 36

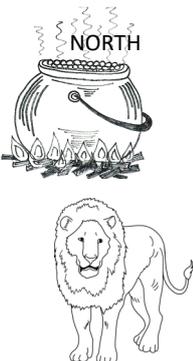

Jehoiakim was the king. He did not care about God and did many evil things but Jeremiah continued to preach God's message. The people were worshipping idols rather than worshipping God.

The letters below have been turned upside down. Write the letters the correct way round to find out what Jeremiah kept telling the people to do.

— — — — —

God told Jeremiah to write down all the sermons that he had preached so far on a scroll. Jeremiah's scribe, Baruch, wrote them down. Jeremiah sent Baruch to read the sermons to the people at the temple.

Why couldn't the King find Jeremiah and Baruch?

Look for 5 puzzle pieces around the page. Write the correct word on each blank piece that matches below.

Circle what Jeremiah and Baruch did in their hiding place:

Rewrote the scroll Gave up and ran away Promised everything would be OK

God's message cannot be destroyed. Look up God says in Matthew 24 v 35 and fill in the missing words:

Heaven and earth shall pass _____,
but _____ shall not pass away.

The bible tells us God's message. We cannot destroy God's message. God's message tells us we must repent of our sins or we will be punished by judgement to come.
