

NameAge

Address

.....

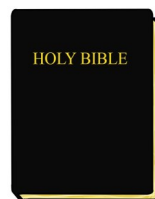

.....

Puzzle Page Level 1

Jeremiah at the potter's house

The rise and fall of empires

Jeremiah
18 v 1-12;

Jeremiah lived in a small country called Judah. To the North was Assyria whose capital was Nineveh. The Babylonians won two battles against Assyria.

Key Nineveh
Water
Fire

Use the key above to fill in the missing words about the first battle.

The prophet Nahum said that the city of _____ would be destroyed. He said it would be destroyed by _____ and by _____. When the army from Babylon got to _____ the river flooded and _____ knocked down the walls. The palace was then burnt with

_____.

In 605 BC there was another battle. Tick who won the second battle:

BABYLON

ASSYRIA

Jeremiah went to the potter's house. The potter had control over the clay.
Connect up who is in charge to the object:

House

God

School

Parents

World

Teachers

Just like the potter had control over the clay, God has power over the world. God has told us he will destroy all those that sin against him.

However, God also tells us that if we repent God will forgive our sins and not destroy us. Colour in what our memory verse says:

Seek ye the Lord while
He may be found