Jeremiah at the potter's house

Jeremiah
18 v 1-12;

The rise and fall of empires

Jeremiah lived in a small country called Judah. The capital city was called Jerusalem. To the North there was the Assyrian Empire. The capital of the Assyrian Empire was Nineveh.

In 605BC there was a battle at Carchemish between the Egyptians, Assyrians and the Babylonians.

Jeremiah 46 describes the battle. Find the words in green in the wordsearch.

Harness the horses, stand with your helmet, prepare (furbish) your spear (v4)

God saw them dismayed, and the mighty ones beaten down. (v5)

Let not the swift flee, they shall stumble and fall (v6)

In this battle, the Assyrians and Egyptians were destroyed. This was the end of the Assyrian Empire.

God

Jeremiah told the people of Judah that God was going to punish them by destroying them. However, if they repented they would not be destroyed. Colour what God promised:

If that nation ... turn from their evil,
I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

Jeremiah 18 v 8

Sadly, the people at the time of Jeremiah did not want to repent because they did not want to leave their sins.

God has warned us that we will also be punished if we do not repent and leave our sins.
