Jeremiah at the potter's house

Jeremiah 18 v 1-12;
 Jeremiah 46 v 1-10;
 Nahum 2 v 1-13

The rise and fall of empires

Jeremiah lived in a small country called Judah. The capital of Judah was Jerusalem. To the south the strongest country was Egypt. To the North was the Assyrian Empire. The capital of the Assyrian Empire was Nineveh.

Find the names of the capital cities in green and fill them in on the map

Around 760 BC, Jonah had told them it would be destroyed because of their sin but the people repented and so it was spared.

100 years later, around _____ BC (760 - 100), the next generation of people had returned to their evil ways and the prophet Nahum said it would be destroyed. This time the people did not repent. Nineveh was destroyed by an army from Babylon. Some of the people escaped to a place called Carchemish.

Write out what The Bible says about how Nineveh would be destroyed...

In this battle, the Assyrians and Egyptians were destroyed. This was the end of the Assyrian Empire.

Jeremiah visited the Potter. Fill in the missing words by rearranging the scrambled letters.

The Potter shaped the _____ (lyac) using his hands to make the pots. However, one was damaged so he squashed it and started again. God told Jeremiah He was like the _____ (tperot).

God had warned nations like the Assyrians they would be punished by being destroyed. However, if they _____ (eepdrnt), they would not be destroyed. Jeremiah told the people of Judah that God was going to _____ (sdyreto) them unless they repented.

Draw a pot on the potter's wheel.

Sadly, the people at the time of Jeremiah did not want to repent because they did not want to leave their sins.

God has warned us that we will also be punished in hell if we do not repent and leave our sins. However, like the people of Judah, if we repent, God will forgive us.
