Jeremiah and the linen belt

The pride of the people challenged

Jeremiah 13

Jeremiah was told to preach a sermon telling the King, the King's mother and the people of Judah that they were wrong to be proud of themselves but first he had to wear, hide and then fetch back a linen belt.

God spoke to Jeremiah again and told him to fetch the belt but it was ruined.

God told Jeremiah to wear a linen belt

Then God told Jeremiah to hide the belt in a rock by Euphrates.

Jeremiah told the people that just as the belt had been ruined God would ruin their pride. Because of their sin they would become captives.

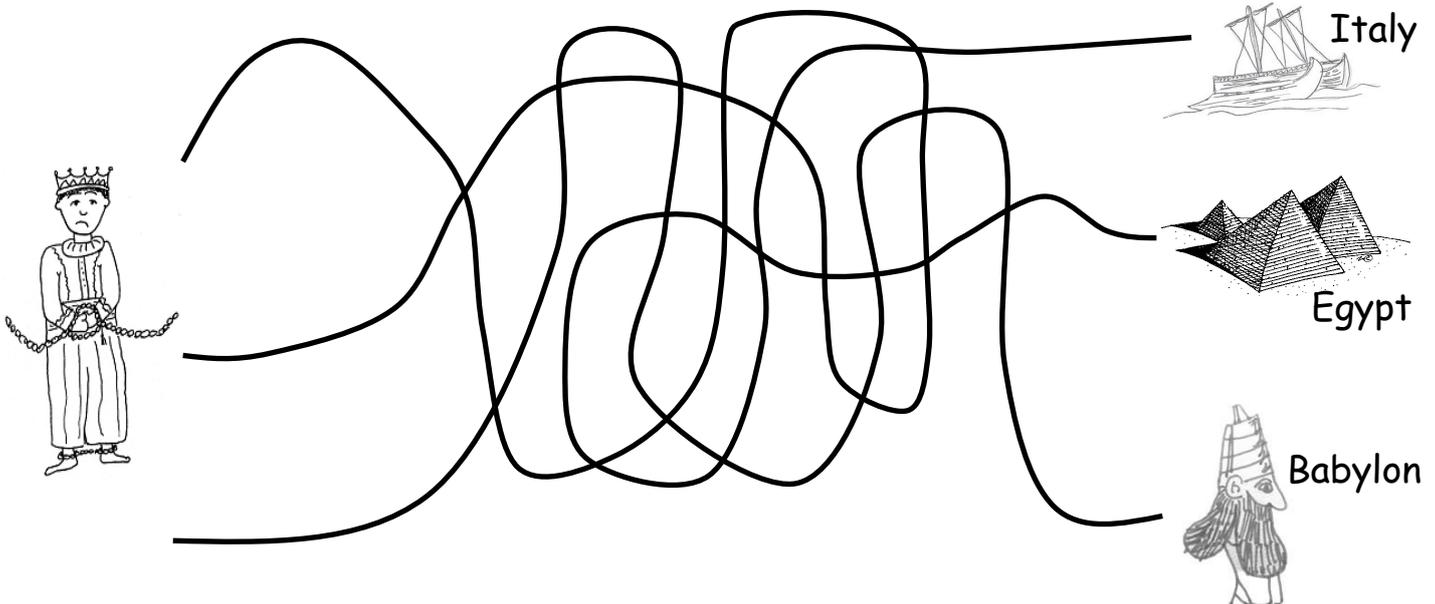

When Jehoiachin was 18 years old he became the next King of Judah. He was a bad man. Jeremiah told him that he needed to put God first. Jeremiah said to him 'Give glory to the Lord your God.' (To glory in something means to honour and value in a special way.) Colour in Jeremiah and the king. Write in what Jeremiah said.
