Jeremiah and the Linen Belt

The pride of the people challenged

Jeremiah 13

2 Kings 23 v 35-37

2 Kings 24 v 1, 6-15

Jeremiah was told to preach a sermon telling the king, the king's mother and the people of Judah that they were wrong to be proud of themselves. First he had to wear a linen belt, then hide it and then fetch it back.

.....(Jeremiah 13 v 10)

By the end of Jehoiakim's reign Jeremiah had been preaching for 29 years. He had warned the people about the enemy that was coming and what they would do. He had told them that the enemy would come from the North (ch 1) and that they would be like a lion (ch 5) He had told them that it would be the king of Babylon (ch 20) and he would break the city like a broken pot (ch 19) and destroy the temple (ch 26). Jeremiah said that God would spoil their pride and they would be good for nothing like a ruined linen belt (ch 13).
