

NameAge

Address

.....

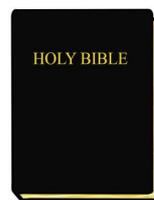

.....

Puzzle Page Level 2

Jeremiah and 2 baskets of figs

God divides people into 2 groups

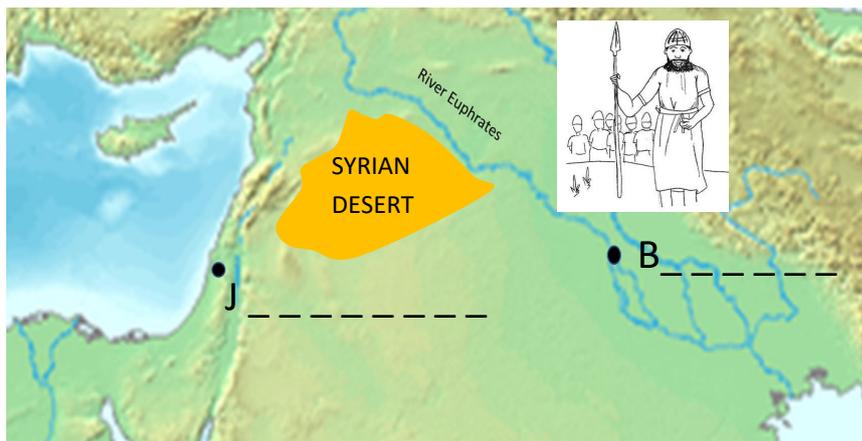

Jeremiah 24

Jeremiah 29

Zedekiah is now the new King in Jerusalem.

The city of Jerusalem has not yet been destroyed but twice King Nebuchadnezzar has been and taken back a group of people to Babylon as captives. Label Jerusalem and Babylon on the map.

Draw a line where the captives were taken: Start at Jerusalem and then go North. Go around the Syrian desert and follow the River Euphrates to Babylon.

Jeremiah wrote a letter to the captives telling them to build houses and have families in Babylon. Circle the number of years that they would be there for...

7 years

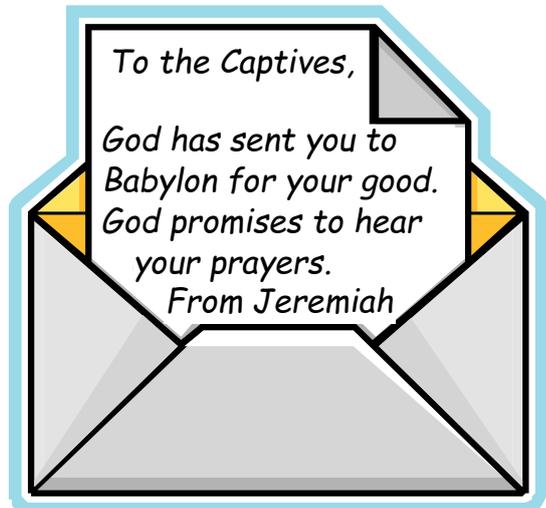

10 years

70 years

But God had a special love for them and God promised...

Ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

Jeremiah 29 v 13

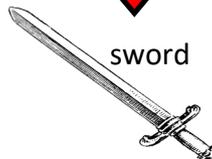

God shewed Jeremiah two baskets of figs that had been left outside the temple.

Draw lines from the pictures in the middle to either good or bad figs depending on who it was prophesied for:

Good Figs

The 'good figs' represented God's people who had been taken as captives to Babylon

Bad figs

The 'bad figs' represented those who would continue to reject God and were still in Jerusalem.

Jesus told a similar parable in about everyone being divided into 2 groups.

Fill in the gaps using the key  = sheep;  = goats;  = hand

At the end of the world, on Judgement Day, Jesus said that everyone will be divided into two groups. Jesus said that it will be just like when a shepherd divides his  _____ from the  _____.

He shall set the  _____ on His right  _____ and the  _____ on the left  _____. He will say to those on

His right  _____ 'Come' and they will enter into heaven but He will say to those on the left  _____, 'Depart' and they will go to hell.