Jeremiah and the yokes

God's warning against those who tell lies

Jeremiah was told to make a yoke.

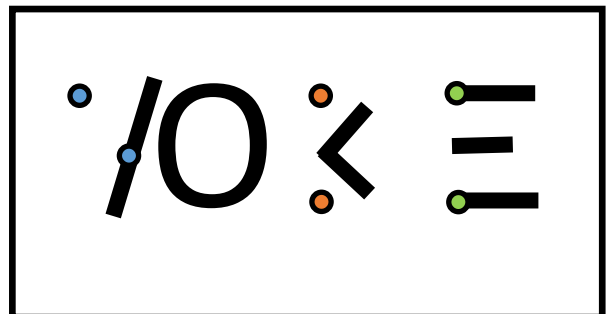

Jeremiah 27

Jeremiah 28

Draw straight lines matching up the dots that are the same colour to find out what Jeremiah was told to make.

A yoke would be put over an animal's neck so the owner would be able to steer his animals. This meant the owner would have control over the animals. God told Jeremiah to make a yoke and put it round his neck to tell the message that they would be under the control of the King of Babylon.

Colour the verse and the pictures below.

[God said:] And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah said:

Hananiah said:

You will be under the control of the King of Babylon.

Everyone will soon come home from Babylon.

Write over the letters to see who was telling a lie.

HANANIAH

God's word is true,. We can trust the bible because it is truly God's word.

We must not tell lies. God knows when we tell a lie.
