Jeremiah and Hananiah

True and False Prophets

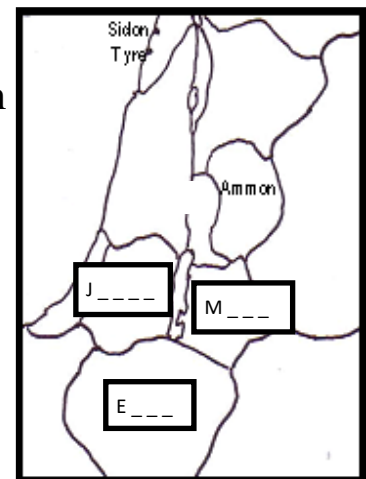

Jeremiah 27
Jeremiah 28

Jeremiah made some yokes out of wood and sent them by messengers to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre and Sidon. This was a message to each of these countries to tell them they would be under the rule of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. Label Edom, Moab and Judah on the map.

List the three things God said he created in Jeremiah 27 v 5:

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____

God created everything, so he is the highest power. Those that have power on this earth have been given it by God. God had given power to Nebuchadnezzar (the king of Babylon) over Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre and Sidon.

Colour in the text below:

And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah then went to Zedekiah, the king of Judah, with a yoke around his neck. He told Zedekiah that Judah would also be under the yoke of Babylon.

Another prophet, named Hananiah, came with a different message.

Join the statements on the right to the correct name. One has been done for you.

Jeremiah

He said Judah would be under Babylon's yoke

He was a false prophet

He broke the yoke

Hananiah

He was a true prophet

Hananiah was a false prophet, but Jeremiah was a true prophet. A few years after this, Nebuchadnezzar surrounded Jerusalem, and Hananiah was dead. The bible is the true word of God and we can trust it. Join the dots together to draw a yoke.
