

NameAge

Address

.....

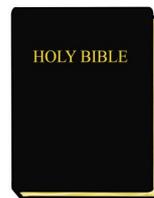

.....

Puzzle Page Level 2

Paul is shipwrecked

The only way to be saved

Acts 27

Paul had been arrested for preaching the gospel. He was taken to Rome to have a trial before Caesar. Who was the centurion in charge of Paul and the other prisoners?

The Centurion was called _ _ _ _ _

(Write in the first letter of the picture)

The centurion found them ships to go on.

1. The Turkish Ship

Draw on the route they took: Start at Caesarea and draw a line to Sidon and then a line to Myra.

2. The Egyptian Grain Ship

Using a different colour pen or crayon draw on the route they took: They started at Myra, went to Fair Havens and ended up on the island of Malta.

How many people were on the second ship?

200 + 60 + 16 = _____

(*Cross out the wrong answers below)

Paul told Julius that they should not leave Fair Havens. Did Julius listen? Yes/No

Why should Julius have listened to Paul? Because he was: an apostle/a prisoner

Who is the best person for us to listen to? Famous people/God

After they left Crete there was a storm. Join up what they did...

They were frightened of hitting these...

They threw these into water...

They didn't eat this for 14 days...

But God spoke to Paul and said,

Fear not, Paul;
thou must be brought before Caesar:
and, lo, God hath given thee
all them that sail with thee.
Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer:
for I believe God

God promised that they would all be saved.

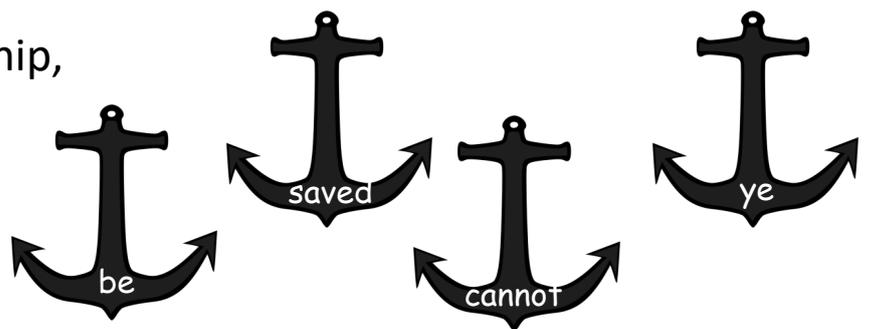

God has promised that all who repent of their sins and put their trust in the Lord Jesus Christ will be saved.

But when the sailors realised that they were getting nearer land in the middle of the night they decided to try and save themselves by letting down a little ship and rowing to the shore.

Use the words on the anchors to complete what Paul said...

Except these abide in the ship,

Acts 27 v 31

The Bible tells us that unless we repent of our _____ and put our trust in _____ then we cannot be saved.

The next morning, they got the ship nearer to the land. Then Julius told everyone to jump into the sea and either swim or use a broken piece of board to get to land. Colour in what happened:

So it came to pass,
that they escaped all safe to land. Acts 27 v 44