Q: Just as they approached the city, Peter went up to the roof of the house. What was he going to do?

/1

Peter was hungry, and while waiting for the meal to be prepared, he had a remarkable experience.

Q: Write on the line in the sheet what he saw (Acts 10: 11-13). In the speech bubble write the message which was repeated to him three times.

/2

God was teaching Peter, through this vision, that the Good News about Jesus was to be shared with non-Jews (or Gentiles as they are called). Until now, Peter had thought it was wrong even to go into the home of a Gentile. God had shown him, through the vision, that ALL NATIONS were to hear the 'Good News' and this made him willing to go to Cornelius' house.

Q: Answer TRUE or FALSE:

Cornelius was alone in his house when Peter came in. _____

Peter waited a week before he went. _____

Cornelius bowed down to worship Peter. _____

Peter was pleased because Cornelius worshipped him. _____

Cornelius said they were all ready to hear what God had to say. _____

/5

When Peter spoke to the people in the house, he told them about Jesus (verses 36-43).

Q: Write out the Key Verse which taught Cornelius how to be saved.

/1

That very day, both Cornelius and his whole household believed in Jesus, and in so doing became Christians. These people were among the first Gentiles to become believers in Jesus.

Whether it was a Jewish teacher, an Ethiopian treasurer, or a Roman centurion, God's salvation was freely available to each one who would believe. The Bible teaches this same message today. It makes no difference what colour, or race, or religion we are. God is able and ready to save all who will put their trust in Jesus.
